

Mark Heaney Memorial ECD Award for Awareness

Mark Heaney, a leading hematologist at Columbia University, had a powerful and sustained influence on the ECDGA, from the early days of its formation until his untimely passing. The ECDGA honors his memory and contributions with this award. Please nominate anyone who has performed outstanding, effective ECD/adult histio awareness activities in the preceding 12 months. The intent is for awareness activities to be focused on efforts that will educate those physicians or others who can help diagnose ECD early in its progression. The award is open to all – patient, caregiver, medical professional, investigator, friend – of any nationality or residence.
